TWO BOOKS EVERY BOOK COLLECTOR NEEDS!

COLLECTIBLE BOOKS: Some New Paths

Ed. by Jean Peters. 1979. c. 300 pp. 6 x 9.

ISBN 0-8352-1154-1. $16.95

In a revolutionary departure from traditional book collecting, twelve well-known collectors and bookmen challenge the long-accepted view that "rare" books are the collector's only quarry. Writing from their own experience, they lead the collector into a world of collectible books that until now has been left largely unexplored and prove that it is still possible to find an abundance of books to collect and at prices that a collector of modest means can afford.

In nine enlightening chapters containing more than 40 illustrations, plus two introductory essays, they relate their experiences in building their collections and suggest numerous ways in which collectors can pursue their own interests and develop challenging and significant collections.

BOOK COLLECTING: A Modern Guide

Ed. by Jean Peters. 1977. 288 pp. ill. 6 x 9.

ISBN 0-8352-0985-7. LC 77-8785. $17.50

Scores of questions on the subject are intelligently answered by twelve noted book collectors, curators and scholars in lucid, informative essays especially written for this book.

Beginning collectors and more advanced practitioners as well as experienced librarians and booksellers will learn how to care for a collection of books and manuscripts . . . how to avoid the pitfalls of buying at auction . . . how to detect fakes . . . how to cut the cost of getting a collection appraised . . . and much more.

D. Steven Corey said, in Book Club of California Quarterly News-Letter, "the book is handsome, well-written and thorough and is recommended reading for both the beginning and the more advanced book collector."

"A standard work for libraries and for collectors."—Paul S. Koda, in Library Journal.

THE WEST COAST'S OLDEST & LARGEST BOOK AUCTION HOUSE

Monthly sale of Fine & Rare Books, Important First Editions, Maps, Manuscripts, Prints & Graphics, 19th & 20th Century original Photographs, Modern Literature, Illustrated Books, Art & Reference, Fine Bindings, Fine Press Books, California & the American West, European & English literature & history from the 15th Century, etc.

We accept consignments from Collectors, Booksellers, & Libraries of valuable Literary Properties for sale at public auction. Terms & open sales dates on application. We also make appraisals for Estate or insurance purposes.

During the 1979-80 auction season our twelve sales alternated between Los Angeles & San Francisco. Sales at Los Angeles were held in the auditorium of The Woman's Club of Hollywood, with exhibit of materials provided in San Francisco as well as Los Angeles. The season was once again our most successful to date, grossing approximately $500,000, representing a 25% increase over last year. Major sales included our Prints & Graphics sale, dispersal of the rare books from the Immaculate Heart College Library, our Photographica 6, the Illustrated books sale in June, and the first in a series of sales of duplicates & out-of-field materials from the Pacific Center for Western Studies at Stockton. Most exciting feature of the Immaculate Heart College Library rare books was sale of a fine set of the Complutensian Polygot Bible, complete in 6 volumes & published in Spain 1514-1517. Its selling price of $40,000 exceeded our top estimate by $10,000 and was the largest amount ever realized by us for a single item. Our prices realized have been listed in American Book Prices Current since 1958.
